THE STORY OF ALOHI LANI

This property is dedicated to Queen Lili'uokalani and her love and passion for Hawaii. She was the last reigning monarch of Hawaii and sister to David Kalakaua. When it comes to service, it is our philosophy to treat our guests as 'ohana, meaning family.

'ALOHI LANI

SIXTH FLOOR

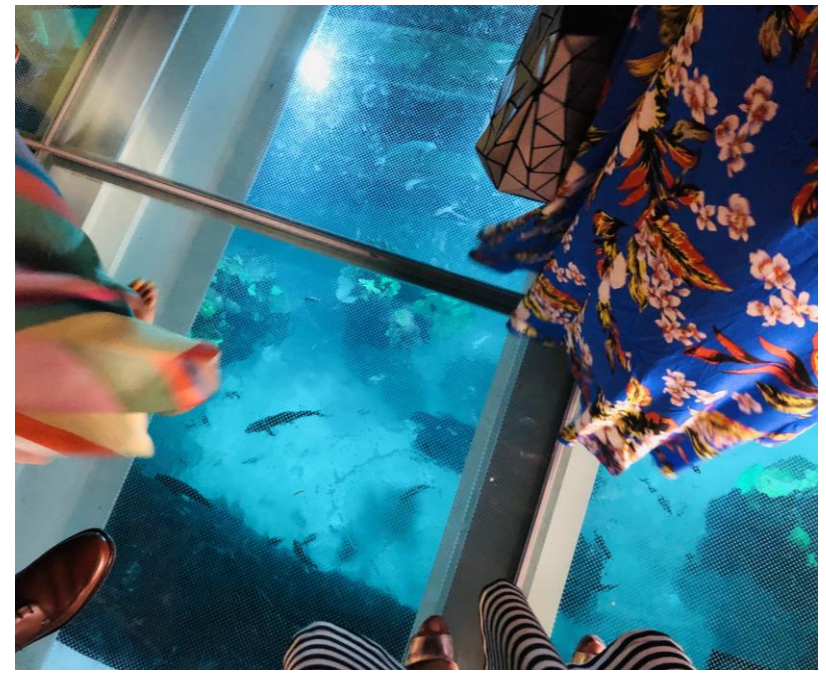

THE LONGBOARD CLUB

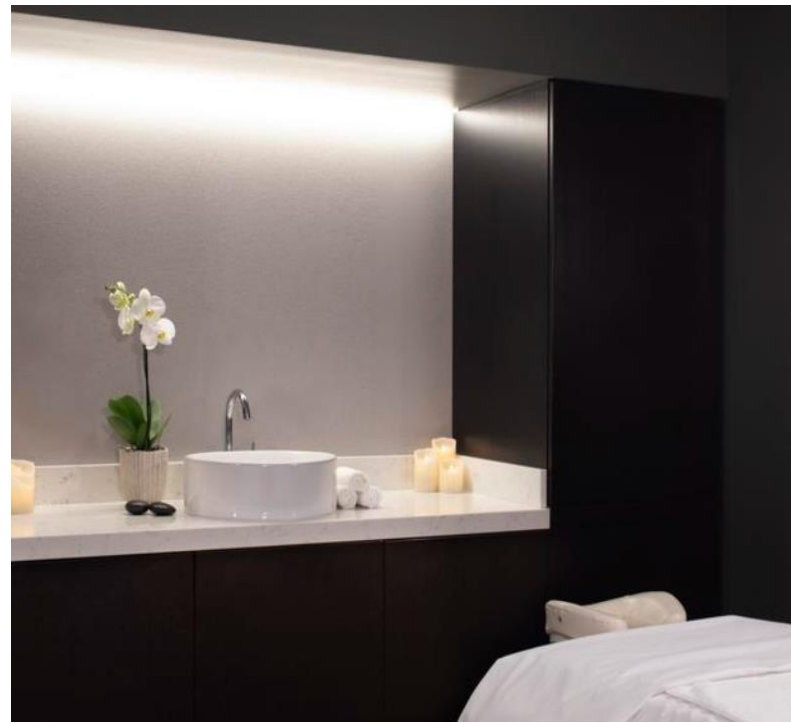

This experience offers a private setting at a Waikiki club level for guests to unwind and take part in curated offerings designed to further enrich their stay at the club room hotel. An elegant and functional design, personalized service and dining program filled with international and local delights.

An aerial, top-down view of five people relaxing on various inflatable floats in the ocean. The floats include a large circular one with a person in the center, a long rectangular one with a person lying down, and several others with people sitting or lying on them. The water is a deep blue with white foam from the waves. The overall image has a blue color cast.

YOUR WELL-BEING IS OUR TOP PRIORITY

- Keeping our Distance. Social distancing measures have been implemented in all public, event and staff-only areas of the hotel.

- Sanitizer Stations Throughout. Touch-less hand sanitizer stations are placed throughout all public, event and staff-only areas of the hotel.

- Enhanced and More Frequent Cleaning. EPA-rated hospital-grade disinfectants are standard protocol and used in guest rooms and to clean public, event and staff-only areas of the hotel.

- Personal Protection Equipment Available. In accordance with CDC guidelines, masks are optional and available for guests and hotel associates.

YOUR WELL-BEING IS OUR TOP PRIORITY

- In-room Safety Kits Provided. Upon arrival, each room includes a sealed safety kit containing a face mask, a pair of disposable gloves and disinfectant wipes.

- Your Room is Your Room. No hotel personnel enters a guest's room during their stay without guest permission.

- Training and Education. All hotel associates undergo regular training on the latest safety and cleanliness guidelines.
